NARROWLY ESCAPE A WHITEWASH

Scranton Puts Up a Magnificent Article of Ball With Hodson in the Box—Other State League Summaries—Standing of the Clubs—National and Eastern League Results. Notes of the Diamond—Bicycle and General Sporting News.

ALLENTOWN and Scranton are now in the race for the State League championship of the second season, but the Scranton forces will have to keep up their excellent work of the past week if they wish to maintain their enviable position, as Allentown the coming week will face the conceded weaker clubs of the League, while Scranton will do battle with the stronger ones.

In the other State League contests yesterday Hazleton succeeded in retiring Manager Randall's Philadelphia Colts without a run, while Lancaster turned the tables on Pottsville and Reading defeated Harrisburg.

The following tables give the percentages of the clubs, together with the number of games won and lost by each club, and their standing in the league race:

Club	Won	Lost	Per Ct.
Scranton	7	3	70.0
Allentown	5	5	50.0
Pottsville	5	5	50.0
Lancaster	5	5	50.0
Hazleton	5	5	50.0
Reading	4	6	40.0
Harrisburg	4	6	40.0
Philadelphia	1	9	10.0

SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.

Hazleton at Scranton.
Allentown at Philadelphia.
Lancaster at Harrisburg.
Reading at Pottsville.

TIE WITH ALLENTOWN FOR FIRST.

Scranton Won Another Game by Brilliant Ball Playing.

One round more.
Scranton's superb work in defeating Allentown yesterday placed it on equal terms with Allentown for the honor of leading the State League procession, and if the boys only keep up their good work we may actually become the leader in the race within a few days.

It's a fine thing, as well as an entirely new sensation for the ball cranks in this city to have a club that can set the pace.

Yesterday's game was a brilliant exhibition of ball playing in which the home team shone with conspicuous lustre.

Stalitz, Hogan and Westlake made a stop of a hot line from Kelly's bat that sent the audience aglow with enthusiasm. The force of the ball turned Westlake completely around, but he recovered himself and sent the ball to first in time to put out the erstwhile king of the diamond.

Maybe those brilliant plays didn't evoke enthusiasm from the 1,500 spectators.

HISTORY OF THE STRUGGLE.

The terrible slugging that marked the previous day's game was noticeable by its absence from yesterday's contest. Allentown had put its best foot forward and with Baldwin in the box was prepared to make a desperate effort to win the game and retain undisputed possession of first place. As an offset to Baldwin Manager Swift put in Hodson, who proved far more effective than the late prince of National League twirlers—Mr. Baldwin.

Wetzel promptly at 4 o'clock walked to the plate and faced Baldwin, going out from Mulvey to Kelly. Hogan made a low drive close to the second bag that Short Stop Sweeney brought to a stand still by a superhuman effort. He sent it to first, but not in time to cut off the first-footed Hogan, who went to third on Patchen's single, Massey sent a fly to Wise who caught it and then cut Hogan off at the plate by a throw to Milligan.

After Phelan and Stalitz had been retired in the second inning, Rogers made a single and Westlake a double. Both scored on Hodson's double. In the third and fourth Scranton failed to add to its score.

ALLENTOWN BADLY RATTLED.

Hodson opened up the fifth inning by striking out and Wetzel was retired on a fly to Costello. Hogan made a three bagger and Patchen was hit by a pitched ball. Baldwin purposely gave Massey his base on balls, filling the bases. Phelan marched to the plate like a general and after some preliminary sparring sent the ball straight for Baldwin. The latter interfered with but did not stop it and Hogan scored. Phelan reached first and the other runners advanced a base.

Stalitz was the next man to fondle the willow and he broke the hearts of Kelly's men by pushing the sphere out against the fence between center and left field. Patchen, Massey and Phelan scored and the ball was returned so carelessly to the field by the disgraced Allentown players that Stalitz reached third and came home on Roger's single. Westlake was retired from Baldwin to Kelly. There was no further scoring by Scranton during the remainder of the game, but there had been enough, quite enough.

ST. JOHN IS AT IT AGAIN.

The Long Haired President of the Scranton Club Arises to Remark.

President St. John, of the Scranton Base Ball association, is much elated over the success of the home club, so elated in fact that for a second time this season he has decided that the Scranton club can get along very well without the assistance of the newspapers give towards making the national game popular and talked about. To a TRIBUNE reporter he said last night:

"We are seriously considering the advisability of taking up all the tickets now held by newspapers and paying for the advertising of such games as the club plays in this city. Some action will be taken with regard to this matter tomorrow."
The reporter assured Mr. St. John that such action on the part of the association would be heartily applauded in the business offices of the daily papers of the city, every one of which has devoted valuable space and expended much money in accurately reporting games at home and abroad all of which has been a certain extent advertising for the Scranton Base Ball association and for which, so far as THIS TRIBUNE is concerned, it has never been recompensed to the extent of one cent in coin of the realm. It is a business arrangement in which the base ball association has decidedly the best of it.

If the members of the Scranton Base Ball association are not destitute of business sense they will suppress Mr. St. John. The newspaper printers of this city have listened long enough and much too patiently to his mouthings concerning the obligations they are under in being allowed to report the games of the Scranton Base Ball club.

ECHOS FROM THE HOME PLATE.

Springfield has released Pitchers Horner and Sigby.

The home team won its sixth straight game today.

Fitcher Pete Daniels, of the Kansas City club, seems to have the pitcher's record. He has won twenty out of twenty-three games.

Fischer Moran, of Brookville, a left hander, pitched for Nashville until the Southern league disbanded, has been signed by Harrisburg.

President Byrne, according to a western paper, pool-rooms the idea of sectional leagues. He says that the twelve-club league has come to stay.

Hazleton will meet Scranton at the ball park today and make a strong effort to break the long string of defeats it has sustained from Scranton.

Mar in M. Quaid, the Cincinnati outfielder, has been released by Captain Comiskey. He did not play in a championship game, and his hardest work has been drawing his salary.

The New York players complain that they were not furnished with tea for the water given them to drink either in Brooklyn or Cincinnati and had to buy it themselves.

Scrantonians are now getting the kind of ball playing by the home team and they are appreciating it too. Fifteen hundred people saw the game yesterday and 1,200 the previous day.

Muller held down a position on the Stars of Frisco, to a game of ball on the Frisco grounds on the date already mentioned. Answer through this paper, George Ruddy, manager.

ger Randall, of the Philadelphia State League club, but was declined. "When Mr. Randall asked me if Hodson could be bought," said Mr. St. John, "I told him yes," provided the offer was a substantial one. He said that the Boston people would give $1,000. "We know that Hodson is worth more than that to us and consequently Mr. Randall was informed that it would take at least $1,200, and possibly more, to secure him. That was the extent of our negotiation. Nothing further has been said by Mr. Randall, and certainly we are not looking for a market for our players." Mr. St. John stated further that in the event of Hodson being released it would be stipulated that the sale is not to take effect until after the present home engagements. In reply to the reporter's question that perhaps a new pitcher of Hodson's caliber could not be engaged, the local president stated that Yerkes gave every indication of being a good pitcher, and that with Yerkes and Flanagan and some other pitcher who is available, the Scranton team could still play winning ball. Mr. St. John stated that while the release of Hodson had not been considered until the Boston offer, Scranton could do without its star pitcher for a consideration. A further statement of Mr. St. John's that "good pitchers are scarcer than water" seemed rather ambiguous and would indicate that a love or the need of the long run might be construed as having a bearing on the motive for Hodson's release.

THE PRESS CLUB'S REGATTA.

Prospect's Bright for One of the Best Events Ever Held in America.

The regatta to be held at Lake Ariel on Tuesday, Aug. 14, under the direction of the Scranton Press club, already gives promise of being a far greater event than was that of 1893, and which oarsmen who were present declared one of the most successful aquatic events they ever took part in. There will be eleven great contests during the course of the day, the first event beginning about 11 o'clock, and they will embrace everything in rowing from the junior single scull to the great eight-oared senior shell race, and in the various struggles will appear such men as Holey, Auman, Donegan, Hawkins, Goughlan and others who are famous in the annals of Amateur oarsmen, the first named now holding the championship, he was at Lake Ariel last year and was a prize winner. He expects to maintain his record. Another star in the senior singles will be Oscar Werts, of Newark, who has made himself to the highest class by the most seaworthy work. The Elmwood Stars will also have crews in five different races, and to show their enthusiasm in the regatta they have arranged to run a special excursion train through to Lake Ariel from Plymouth crossing via the D-laware and Hudson through Wilkes-Barre and Parsons, assuming to the possession of those places unsurpassed accommodations for getting to and from the lake, and overcoming grandly the inconvenience they suffered last year. The Archbold Hosiery company will handle the excursion to the lake that day from the upper Lackawanna valley, and their sales of tickets will include from Olyphant north. They are hustlers and promise to give a big turnout. And as for Scranton and Pittston the Press club will handle the sales of tickets itself and there is every reason to believe there will be a great rush of people to see the unsurpassed sports. The train service will be all that may be desired.

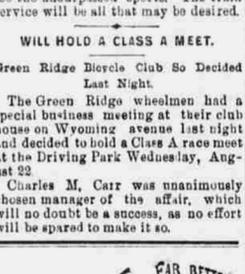

WILL HOLD A CLASS A MEET.

Green Ridge Bicycle Club So Decided Last Night.

The Green Ridge wheelmen had a special business meeting at their club house on Wyoming avenue last night and decided to hold a Class A race meet at the Driving Park Wednesday, August 29.

Charles M. Carr was unanimously chosen manager of the affair, which will no doubt be a success, as no effort will be spared to make it so.

FAR BETTER TO BE CALM.

You have to swelter in the city or to be able to flee to the shore these hot days.

Curse the heat if you will. Far better to be calm and endeavor to counteract its effects.

You know better than any one else how it affects you. With most people it causes irritability, languor and indigestion.
